

Do-it-yourself

Family-Directed Home Funeral Workshop

Saturday Nov 12th, 9am - 4pm

Landmark Center Suite 202, Viroqua, WI

The Threshold Care Circle of Viroqua will be presenting a one day workshop on do-it-yourself Home Funerals in Viroqua on Saturday Nov. 12 from 9am-4 pm at the Landmark Center in Viroqua, (500 East Jefferson Street) Suite 202. This workshop will give you the information and hands-on practice to prepare you to care for your family member after death at home, and to carry out a home or family-directed funeral with or without the services of a funeral director.

Topics to be covered include:

- A visual framework: Excerpts from A Family Undertaking
- Why a home or family-directed funeral
- Advance planning: Utilizing My Final Wishes, WI Health Care Power of Attorney, Living Will, Ethical Will, & Declaration of Final Disposition in advance of your death.
- Meeting WI legal requirements and acquiring the necessary paper work
- Family Direct Cremation & Green Burial options
- Care of the Body
- Creating sacred space
- Home vigils

Cost - $60, includes one copy of My Final Wishes, various handouts and a CD packed with reference materials. Advance registration required - space is limited.

Email info@thresholdcarecircle to be sure the class is not full before sending in your money.

Name _____ email _____

Address _____ City _____

State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Mail registration & payment to: Threshold Care Circle, 500 E Jefferson Suite 202, Viroqua, WI 54665

For more information, call 608-606-8060 or visit our website at www.thresholdcarecircle.org or email info@thresholdcarecircle.org

*The Threshold Care Circle exists as a community network and educational resource.
Our mission is to educate and empower individuals and families to care for their dead at home.*